COME ONE COME ALL, FREEEEEEEEEE RESOURCES

Come and visit your Wyoming Business Information Center (BIC) located in Casper. That's right, the BIC offers free resources, such as free business counseling, free computer access to the internet and free library check-out privileges. All you need is your public library card. You may check-out up to three items. If you cannot come to the BIC, you can pick up the resources and drop them off at your local library state wide.

Your BIC resource library includes material on accounting, legal, customer service, home based businesses, business plans, personnel management, finance, business acquisitions, management, import/export, start-up manuals and other business and entrepreneur topics.

The BIC has over 300 books and videos on business topics. The BIC also has public access computers, internet access, laser and color printers, digital camera and digital scanner. Available software includes Microsoft Office, Adobe Page Maker, Business Plan Pro, County Business Patterns, Turbo Tax, Jian Bix Plan Pro, Adobe Photo Deluxe, Statistical Abstract, Microsoft Publisher, Adobe Page Mill, Quick Books Pro, and International Trade Data.

The BIC is located in the Dick Cheney Federal Building, 100 East "B" Street, Room 4126, Casper. Free business resources and computer access are available 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. If your schedule does not meet with our schedule, please contact Susan Perea or Dave Denke at 307-261-6566 or sbawyo@sba.gov for special arrangements.
